Rolo's Long Car Trip

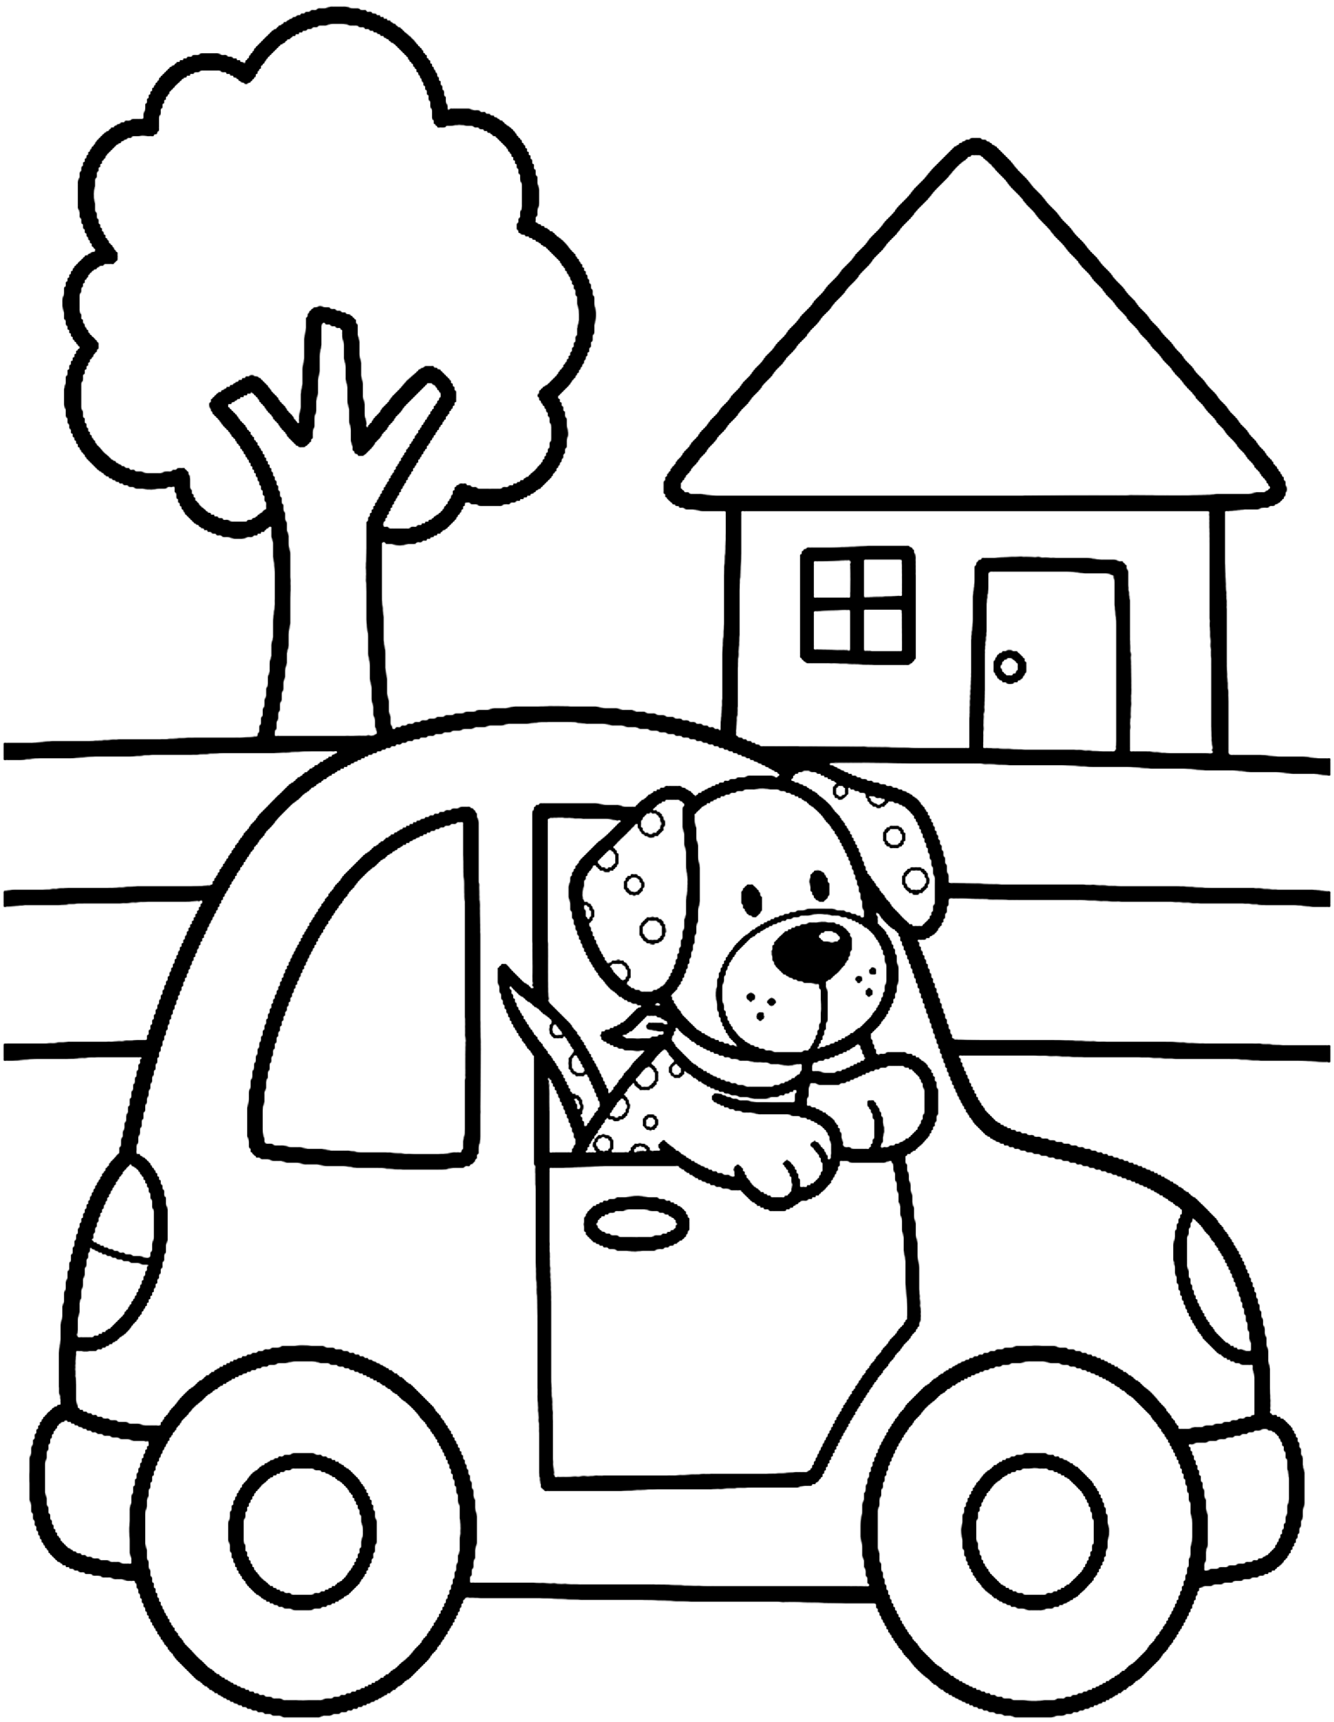

Rolo hops into the backseat between two smiling children to begin the long drive.

Rolo looks out the open window at two fluffy clouds floating above the road.

The ride is very long, so sleepy Rolo curls up on a soft blanket to take a nap.

Rolo wakes up from his nap and spots a cozy house and a tall tree.

Rolo wags his tail as Grandma gives him a big hug on the grass.
